Mid-Eden Magazine

with news from the Parishes of
The Cross Fell
Group

What nourishes us? Clearly the immediate answer to this question is food and drink. These things are basic requirements for us to live a healthy and active life. Ironically, during the Christmas and New Year period we may have overindulged in both of these areas. Hence why many New Year's resolutions are focused on adjusting how much food we consume and even maybe taking on the challenge of a dry January.

But if we look a little bit deeper into this question of what nourishes us, we can start to realise that other things are essential to our deeper concepts of happiness. What has real meaning in your life? Do you feel fulfilled by the life that you live? Do you feel energised and even a sense of peace.....?

In the Gospels, Christ is constantly challenging those around him. He asks them what is it that really matters in their lives. He makes it clear that our own salvation is rooted in discovering God in our own lives and that often means discovering God in others. Jesus wants us to be nourished with things of meaning, things that give us life, not in the frivolous offerings of the world around us. The beginning of the New Year is a great time to stop and to reflect on this. What do you truly want to change in your life? Okay, January the 1st has passed us by..... but the saying "today is the first day of the rest of your life" is actually true so start afresh today!

Now for a little advert. If you have been wondering about how you can give a little of your time for others then how about taking a look at the Restore website <https://restorecumbria.co.uk>. This is a local charity that has at its very heart the need to give back..... clothes, house items, books, etc, and even maybe a little of your time..... The Penrith store is looking for volunteers 'even for an hour or so' on Saturdays ..... If you feel the urge to call in and help out give Lorraine a call on 07746 876 092!

MEMO NOTICES

Update on MEMO Charges for 2023

Unfortunately the costs for business and non-business adverts have been increased in 2023 from Feb's issue. We've managed to keep our fees static for a number of years but with all prices rising our printing costs have increased during 2022. During 2021 at the height of the Covid pandemic, we waived all fees and used up the small surplus that had accumulated over the years. Not to increase our fees now would put the continued existence of MEMO at risk. The new fees are detailed on page 2 and we will still offer our subscription discount with the same incentive of 11 for the price of 10.

Donations and Sponsorship

While our new fees for 2023 will help counter our increased costs of production, the MEMO will still face a challenge to secure its future. The surplus we had allowed us to maintain production of the MEMO during the pandemic and the support it has provided to the community and local businesses since its foundation in 1973. Fees have never covered all overheads even though it is produced entirely by volunteers and we rely on the generosity of our sponsors and donors to make up the shortfall.

Donations of any size would be greatly appreciated (see page 2 for details of the MEMO's payment options).

Alternatively if you would like to join as a sponsor of the MEMO please contact Chris or Jeff (see page 2 for more details).

From the Herald—January & February 1923

Average weather but stormy in mid-February. By Government order, the Midland Railway has now become part of the LNWR (London Northwestern Railway). A letter from the Ministry of Transport has reported that there should be “No studs on traction engine wheels henceforth!” It was reported that several roads have fallen into disrepair, with loose stones, potholes and a broken bridge all causing problems and Glassonby Beck Mill’s millrace having undercut the road. Hunsonby & Winskill Parish Council have declared, “We need a rubbish tip—but not at our expense!” Whist drives have been organised to raise funds for the Church Choir and the Cumberland Infirmary, and Langwathby Nursing Association raised £8.10.0 (£680 now) to help pay for a nurse. Horses have been straying onto the road, two of which belonged to an Appleby dealer, Jacob Bell, who has been fined 10/= (£40 now) after being seen by PC Wills of Melmerby. Other news: Mr TB Nelson of Langwathby has been appointed as a JP. Miss Ada Sowerby’s Concert and the Sacred Concert for the Victoria Institute, Culgaith, made £21 (£1680 now). Ousby Reading Room members’ Annual Dance & Supper had the Dufton String Band.
