Do you ever forget people's names? It can be really embarrassing to admit that you can't remember, particularly if you've known them a long time. Or perhaps you made a particular effort to learn a person's name but then fail to recognise them when your paths cross in a different location or situation from where you last met and, worse still, if they've changed their clothes, grown a beard or dyed their hair since then!

Or perhaps there's someone you often see about the village and you stop and chat from time to time, but you've never actually found out what they're called and you don't feel you can ask now.

Since moving to Langwathby last June, I've had a lot of names to learn. I started by jotting them down in a notebook, but it soon became too complicated to find the right name amidst the various pages, so I have reverted to memory alone, with predictable failures! Being a curate in an area with well over a dozen churches, I rarely go to the same village on consecutive weeks and sometimes it's months between visits, which makes getting to know people quite tricky.

And yet, when I go somewhere and am greeted by name, I really appreciate that someone's remembered me – it gives me a sense of belonging. So even if I'm not very good at it, I'm going to keep trying to learn people's names. And in the meantime, there's always the gift of a smile, which is universally understood and doesn't rely on a great memory.

So let's keep being friendly and greeting our fellow villagers with a smile or a wave and – if you can – their name. That way, we'll brighten each other's day.

Rev'd. Lindsay Harrod

MEMO AGM 2023 Summary

The MEMO AGM was held at Langwathby Village Hall on Monday 6th February 2023. The MEMO Committee reported on the highlights of the year and expressly thanked the volunteers, advertisers & sponsors that have made 2022 a continuation of the MEMO's success.

2023 will be a financially challenging year for the MEMO. Despite the resumption of fees in 2022, following the waiver during the covid pandemic, our financial surplus remained worryingly low due to increased costs of production. Our fees have been increased for 2023 to start to address this and the MEMO committee is exploring other cost saving options as well as asking for support from our community if you feel able to donate any amount to help ensure the MEMO remains viable as a crucial community publication.

The existing committee members were re-elected, with the exception of our treasurer, with no other nominations having been received. Our treasurer Sheila let us know her intention to stand down after many years of supporting the MEMO and we thank her greatly for her commitment and support. Shelia has agreed to stay on while we find a new treasurer (see below).

The MEMO committee recognised the amazing contribution Alan Harryman, sadly now passed, made to the distribution of the MEMO for the residents of Culgaith for more than two decades. We also thanked those that stepped in to help with the distribution.

This is a summary of the AGM and full minutes and committee reports can be requested from the chairman / editor (Chris). The next AGM date will be notified a minimum three months prior to the date. Note that we will be moving the AGM to later Sept / early Oct to support to the change in subscription year.

THE MEMO COMMITTEE NEEDS YOUR HELP

We need to expand our committee to spread an increasing load on a small number of committee members & are looking for help in the following areas:

- Treasurer
- Deputy Editor
- Community Advert Coordinator

If you, or someone you know, think you may be able to volunteer help then get in touch (or encourage them to) and we'll happily provide more info. We'll feature more details on the roles next month.

CULGAITH VILLAGE HALL UPDATE

The VH committee continues to work to safeguard the future of the hall. The loft has been lagged and the boiler replaced. Culgaith residents will be sent a survey in April asking for input on the future of the hall, including what activities they would like to see.

The hall was used for a puppy training course (which we hope to run again). The first prize draw of the 100 club is taking place in March. Regular events continue to be pop choir, bridge club, yoga, The Vic cafe, art group, modern jive and the church café. We will be looking to the friends of the hall to help to turn ideas into reality, and we are currently looking for volunteers to help keep the recycling area tidy.

If you would like to know about anything mentioned above then email culgaithhallbookings@gmail.com or telephone Jacqui 07772 205 776

From the Herald—March 1923

Rain, sleet, snow. Easter, 1 April. Jobs are scarce, as are houses, so overcrowding and diseases persist.

Ousby's roads are rough and there are no heaps there of stone for them. RDC to see if the Ousby Parish Quarry, and Melmerby would supply these.

Langwathby and Edenhall WI's subject was "How to sole a shoe".

Sons of Temperance Cadets' Annual Concert was on Friday evening 16th in Melmerby Chapel. Collection raised £2.5s.0d (now £180).

Hunsonby Wesleyan Chapel is thinking of erecting a Sunday School (Report 24th, p6).

Faculty granted for a kerb round Jacob Pickering's grave at Addingham. He was Headmaster of Hunsonby School for c.24 years; C of E. Long article and photos of Canon Stephenson, Addingham Composer, 31st p.11

RDC to tar the road in Culgaith and from Langwathby Brow Top to Skirwith. Midland Railway to repair the bridge near Langwathby Station.

Melmerby Parish Meeting Friday 23rd in the School—lot of flytipping on our roads; we want our letters earlier in the day. A ford is blocked at Broadmenday (Noted, but it's up to the farmer, not us.)

Langwathby now has a public telephone call—office, and can do trunk calls to up to 150 miles away. (Report, 24th, p1).
